Father: William G. Cates

Born: about 1821 in Alabama

Died: between 1850 and November 1852

Mother: Elizabeth "Betsy" Sylvan

Born: 1824 in Alabama or Jackson County, Mississippi

Died: 1900

Buried: Community Cemetery, Dauphin Island, Alabama

William and Elizabeth Cates lived in Bluff Creek, now known as Vancleave, Jackson County, Mississippi.

The Cates family were located in Jackson County, Mississippi since the 1800's. In 1812, Joshua Cates and William Cates had land grants. In 1821 a William Cates was appointed by the State Legislature to serve on a commission to fix the Jackson County Seat of Justice. Joshua and William Cates in 1816 signed the petition to the United States Congress to allow them to retain their Spanish Land Grants while part of West Florida. The relationship between William G. Cates and this earlier William Cates has not been determined.

Note: In 1852, after William G. Cates' death, Elizabeth married Henry Williams. Henry Williams immigrated from Germany before 1850. The German spelling of his name was Wilhelm. Henry Williams died Nov. 10, 1928. They had the following children:

- | | |
|-------------------|------|
| 1. Henry | 1853 |
| 2. Adeline | 1856 |
| 3. George | 1859 |
| 4. Fredrick | 1862 |
| 5. Mary Elizabeth | 1865 |

Note* Leanna Cates married John "Jack" Thompson of Dauphin Island, and Harriet Cates married Jacob Cook of Biloxi, Mississippi.

CAROLINE ADELE CATES
Sept. 19, 1850 – Dec. 7, 1933

Caroline Adele Cates was born in Scranton, Mississippi, Jackson County (present day Pascagoula) to William Cates and Elizabeth Sylvan Cates on or about September 19, 1850. There is some doubt about her birth date because of the 1850 & 1880 census, and a Cates family search. Caroline was not listed on the 1850 census, and the 1880 census listed her as 36 years old. If the 1880 census is correct, that would mean that Caroline was born in 1844, and would be listed on the 1850 census. Not being listed on the 1850 census would mean that she was born after 1850 or she was born in 1850 after the census was taken. The family search shows Sept. 10, 1851 and her head stone reads Sept. 19, 1850. Granny Cates always believed that she was much younger than Daniel, so the 1850 or the 1851 date is the more realistic.

Caroline went by her nickname "Polly" to all her friends, and family. It is believed that the nickname stuck because of her voice inflection and the rapidity of her words. All the grandchildren called her "Grandma" or "Little Granny". She was a small woman.

1850 Federal Census, Jackson County, Mississippi, 316-316 shows:

William G. Cates	29 M	Farmer	Born in Ala.
Elizabeth Cates	26 F		Born in Ala.
Leanna Cates	6 F		Born in Miss.
Harriet Cates	3 F		Born in Miss.

1865, Dec. 24, the marriage of Caroline Adele Cates and Daniel S. Zirlot is recorded in Mobile County, Alabama, Book 21 page 178.

1880 Federal Census, Mobile County Vol 17, Ed 129, Sheet 7, Line 6:

Zerlott, Daniel	Age 38	born in Miss
Zerlott, Caroline	Age 36	born in La.
Zerlott, Arthur son	Age 10	born in Miss	* age and where born is incorrect
Zerlott, Fred son	Age 7	born in La
Zerlott, Georgia dau	Age 4	born in Ala
Zerlott, John son	Age 2	born in Ala	* Should be "George, son"

Pat: You posted a note under CATES in the Surnames Section. My mother was Sadie Ruth Cates. She was the daughter of Winifred Valentine Cates. He was the son of Thomas Jefferson CATES. He was the son of Hiram Cates & Mary Caroline NEAL. Hiram is as far back as I can go with positive proof. His brothers were Pleasant Cates and William Lee Cates. It is believed that Hiram was born in Bedford >> County, TN. But both he and Pleasant lived in Mississippi. William Cates is believed to be the father of these Cates boys. But we have no proof as yet. Pleasant Cates was born in 1811, d in 1906. Hiram Cates was b. 1814, and d. 1873. William Lee Cates was b. 1818 and died in 1900. Do these sound like the Cates you have information on. If so I would certainly be interested in any information you have, and if this is a family you are searching I know I could be of help as I have 2 books on my family at this time done by other researchers.

Mattie L. Cates furnished the information on the relationship of William, Hiram, and Pleasant, she thought there was also a sister and another brother named Jim or James who "went out west". Pleasant furnished further information but none of these bothered to put down who their father was. Mattie had said she believed his name was William. Hope this helps, and there is much more if it fits. I am of course hoping you know who the father of these ancestors of mine were. Hiram was my gg-grandfather.

FROM: PATRICK COX (SSTD84A)

SUBJECT: COX

I am new at this so please bear with me. I am looking for information on a line of the Cox family that oral tradition says came to NY from Ireland (date unknown, but I would assume that it was late 18th or early 19th century). The story goes that four Coax brothers landed in NY. Two of the brothers stayed in NY. The other two drifted down through KY, Tenn., and settled in Mississippi. The name was >>>> pronounced "Cox", so to simplify things they dropped the "a". These two brothers were John and Caleb. We assume our branch of the Coxes came from John, but don't know for sure. Anyway, the first Cox born to John Cox was John Calvin Cox (my Gr Gr Grandfather) in 1810 in Mississippi. His wife, Pollyanna Cox, born 1814, Mississippi. Brothers, Bolen, Joe & Benjamin (twins). Sister, Luvinca. John Calvin Cox had ten children. Sons, Bramlet, Wesley, John Calvin (My Great Grandfather, Born 1845, in Mississippi), Luis Burton, Easkial Emory, Richard, Jeff Davis, Warren.
